

6516205056.txt

This is just another example of a few trying to take away the rights of many. This country was found on the principle for the people by the people. Not to be controlled by the by big business. I for one feel my rights are being violated if XM radio is cut in anyway. If the other Broadcasting Companies would do a better job they would have a larger public.